

I enjoy eating my meals and watching TV without unwanted interruptions. I do not feel that it is THEIR, the solicitors, right to intrude on my life when I didn't ask them to. This include for profit and not for profit organizations. Please leave Indiana's regulations as it is.
Thank you,
Linda Teague